

FROM CONFLICT to COLLABORATION

BUILDING ETHICAL, TRAUMA-INFORMED, AND SUSTAINABLE PARTNERSHIPS

INSTRUCTORS' BIO

Biographies

Bukola Oriola

Honorable Bukola Oriola is an international speaker, bestselling author, and advocate working to end human trafficking and domestic violence. A survivor of labor trafficking, she has served on the U.S. Advisory Council on Human Trafficking, appointed by Presidents Obama and Trump, and on the OSCE's International Survivors Advisory Council. An award-winning journalist, she elevates survivor voices and promotes practical solutions for service providers and communities. She is the founder and Executive Director of The Enitan Story and owner of Bukola Oriola Group, LLC. Her work and memoirs have reached millions worldwide, and she holds degrees in Mass Communication and Community Leadership & Diversity.

Biographies

Honorable Ronny Marty

Honorable Ronny Marty is an anti-human trafficking consultant, corporate trainer, hospitality professional, and survivor leader with over 30 years of hospitality industry experience. As Owner and CEO of Marty Professional Cleaning Services Inc., he brings deep insight into how trafficking risks intersect with hospitality operations. A survivor of labor trafficking, Marty is nationally and internationally recognized for his advocacy on forced labor. He has served two terms on the U.S. Advisory Council on Human Trafficking and with the OSCE's International Survivors of Trafficking Advisory Council, helping organizations turn awareness into practical, people-centered action.

Amanda Colegrove

Amanda Colegrove graduated with a Master's Degree in geography from the University of Missouri and is currently the West Michigan Human Trafficking Task Force Coordinator, bringing over 12 years of experience building a response to human trafficking. Previously she spent four years leading an anti-trafficking coalition in Missouri and seven years integrating a statewide response to labor trafficking in Minnesota.

Biographies

Honorable Bella Hounakey

Honorable Bella Hounakey is a Program Management for ACF's ORR with specific expertise in child welfare, migration, and mental health. Honorable Hounakey has worked with unaccompanied children from Central and South America as well as unaccompanied refugee minors in foster care operations for over seven years. Prior to ORR, Honorable Hounakey was an Asylum Officer with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services under the Department of Homeland Security and a monitoring and evaluation specialist at The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Honorable Hounakey holds a Master's Degree in Social Work from Western Michigan University and a Bachelor's degree in Spanish and Criminal Justice, Western Michigan University.

This training was produced by The Enitan Story under 15POVC-22-GG-01575-MUMU, awarded by the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this training are those of the contributors and do not necessarily represent the office position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.

In addition, the Addressing Conflict, Harm and Repaid in SME-to-SME Section of the training was produced by a Safe Harbor Supportive Services grant from the Minnesota Department of Health.

The Enitan Story
Advocate for Victims. Empower Survivors.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH